

Family Compass Waterloo Region

Guiding you to services for children and youth

FamilyCompassWR.ca Marketing Package

For Children and Youth Planning Table Members and Partners

#FamilyCompassWR

Children and Youth
Planning Table
of Waterloo Region

On Monday, February 12 the new Family Compass website (FamilyCompassWR.ca) will launch! This exciting new resource is designed to be a go-to site for all services for children and youth, and will make navigation of services easier for all in Waterloo Region.

As a member of the Children and Youth Planning Table, we are asking for your organization's help to promote Family Compass to the families and youth with whom you work, and to your staff. There are many ways to help promote Family Compass. Attached you will find a Marketing Package, in it you will find all the key information you'll need to promote the Family Compass.

This package includes:

1. General information about Family Compass
2. Family Compass logos
3. Sample social media content
4. Family Compass banner and square advertisements
5. Family Compass postcards
6. Sample email to share with staff
7. Sample news stories

Next steps:

Promote Family Compass! Use any of the information provided in this package to share news about Family Compass with partners, community members, families and youth. If you have any additional questions, please contact Jaime Jacomen, Virtual Access Team (jaime.jacomen@ckw.ymca.ca).

General Information

Website Link: familycompasswr.ca

Website Hashtag: #FamilyCompassWR

Suggested Twitter Handle: @CYPTWR

Event Launch Registration: Register here for the Family Compass Launch on February 12.

About FamilyCompassWR.ca

"It is a great resource! A one stop shop, quick hit where the resources a parent needs to navigate the system are simple"

- Community Member

On Monday, February 12 the new Family Compass website (FamilyCompassWR.ca) will launch!

This website will be a new go-to site for finding community-based services and supports for parents, youth and children in Waterloo Region. Visitors to Family Compass will have 3 'doors' to choose from when they visit the site:

1. Search for Services – a self-search for local health, social and recreational services for children and youth
2. I Have a Concern – a tool to help parents, youth and caring adults find the best starting point organization to address developmental concerns in a child or youth
3. Resources for Parents – resources for parents to learn, find support and connect with other parents (via Parenting Now)

Development of this go-to site for services for children and youth has been the collaborative effort of the Children and Youth Planning Table, Special Needs Strategy Planning Table and Moving on Mental Health Strategy.

Guiding you to services for children and youth

Family Compass Logo

Logos can also be found on the Resources and Research page of the Children and Youth Planning Table Website.

Feel free to include the logos on your website, in social media posts, and anywhere else you promote Family Compass. If posting the logo on your website, consider using it as a button and hyperlink to www.familycompasswr.ca. When you include a link to Family Compass on your website, you provide families and youth with easy access into the full range of services and supports in the full system.

Use which ever logo fits best!

Guiding you to services for children and youth

Sample Social Media Content

The content below is a sample of what could be distributed via your social media outlets. Don't forget to include the Family Compass logo, screen shots of the website, or other related photos with your posts. Please modify this content as you see fit or create your own!

Sample Tweets

- Looking for resources for children and youth in Waterloo Region? Not sure where to start? Check out the new FamilyCompassWR.ca! A one-stop website guiding you to resources for children and youth. #FamilyCompassWR
- Waterloo Region has a new resource for children, youth and families! Check out FamilyCompassWR.ca to connect with existing programs, find recreational opportunities, connect to parenting resources and more! #FamilyCompassWR
- Do you have a concern about your child or youth, but aren't sure where to start? Check out the "I Have a Concern" tool on FamilyCompassWR.ca. Answer a short confidential survey and get connected with a service provider who can help. #FamilyCompassWR
- Find resources for children, youth and families – any time, anywhere – with the "Search for Services" option on FamilyCompassWR.ca. Browse by category, organization or neighbourhood to find the right services for you. #FamilyCompassWR
- Hey #WaterlooRegion – there's a new resource for children, youth and families. Check out FamilyCompassWR.ca today to find local services supporting children and youth. #FamilyCompassWR
- 3 doors – 3 possibilities to get you connected to the right services for children, youth and families in #WaterlooRegion. Visit FamilyCompassWR.ca to search for services, get connected to a local organization, or connect with @ParentingNowca #FamilyCompassWR
- Hey #WaterlooRegion – want to find local walk-in counselling services? Or early years programs in your neighbourhood? There's a new website that can help. Visit FamilyCompassWR.ca to find local resources serving children, youth and families. #FamilyCompassWR

Sample Facebook Posts

The content below is a sample of what could be distributed via your social media outlets. You are welcome to include the logo, screen shots of the website, or other related photos. Please do modify this content as you see fit, or create your own!

- Want to know what resources are available in your community? Have some concerns about your child's development, but aren't sure where to start? Looking to connect with other parents? Family Compass is a new website that can help! FamilyCompassWR.ca is a new go-to website to help guide families to resources in the Waterloo Region. With 3 options: Search for Services, I Have a Concern, and Resources for Parents, families will be able to connect to information and resources, any time, anywhere.
- Check out the new FamilyCompassWR.ca! Find and connect to local services for children, youth and families. The website offers three doors to help you find the resources you need.
 1. Search for services: a self-search database for local health, social and recreational services for children and youth.
 2. I Have a Concern: do you have a concern about your child's development? Answer a few short, confidential questions to get connected to a local organization that can help.
 3. Resources for Parents: connect to Parenting Now to learn, find support and connect with other parents.

- Have you heard? Waterloo Region has a new website to guide you to services supporting children, youth and families. FamilyCompassWR.ca offers three options to help you find what you're looking for: a self-search database of local services; a tool to connect you to a local organization to address concerns about child/youth development; and a link to Parenting Now to access resources for parents.

Guiding you to services for children and youth

Banner and Square Advertisement

The banner and square advertisement can also be found of the on the Resources and Research page of the Children and Youth Planning Table Website.

Feel free to use either the banner or square advertisement on your website, in a newsletter or as part of your email signature!

PARENTS

Want to know where to find services for children and youth?
We can connect you in minutes.

FamilyCompassWR.ca

Post Card

The post card can be found of the on the Resources and Research page of the Children and Youth Planning Table Website.

You can print the post card from the Children and Youth Planning Table website or contact Emily Halsband (e.halsband@dscwr.com) for additional copies. French version of the post card is available online.

Family Compass
Waterloo Region

Guiding you to services for children and youth in Waterloo Region

Unsure where to start? Find out who can help you and your family in minutes.

Family Compass Waterloo Region is a quick, easy and interactive website for parents, professionals and youth who are looking for local health, social or recreational services.

Visit FamilyCompassWR.ca to get started.

- Quick and easy to navigate.
- One-stop resource for all local services supporting children and youth.
- Search from anywhere.
- No guessing who to contact when you have concerns.

FamilyCompassWR.ca

Family Compass
Waterloo Region
Guiding you to services for children and youth

Using Family Compass Waterloo Region's I Have a Concern tool, finding the right service provider for a child or youth's concerns can be completed in four easy steps.

- Step 1 Visit www.FamilyCompassWR.ca and click on I Have a Concern.
- Step 2 Launch the tool.
- Step 3 Answer a short series of questions about your concern.
- Step 4 Print, save or email your responses to your best starting point organization for follow-up.

FamilyCompassWR.ca

Sample Email to Share with Staff

Family Compass (FamilyCompassWR.ca) launches February 12! Offering a one-stop website to guide families and youth to local services that meet their needs, Family Compass includes a brand new tool, the first of its kind in Waterloo Region.

This website will be a new go-to site for finding community-based services and supports for parents, youth and children in Waterloo Region. Visitors to Family Compass will have 3 'doors' to choose from when they visit the site:

1. Search for Services – a self-search for local health, social and recreational services for children and youth
2. I Have a Concern – a tool to help parents, youth and caring adults find the best starting point organization to address developmental concerns in a child or youth
3. Resources for Parents – resources for parents to learn, find support and connect with other parents (via Parenting Now)

We can use Family Compass to explore service options, keep up to date on what is being offered in our community, and support families and youth in navigating the system.

Development of this go-to site for services for children and youth has been the collaborative effort of the Children and Youth Planning Table, Special Needs Strategy Planning Table and Moving on Mental Health Strategy.

It is an exciting step in making it easier to connect the families and youth that we support to the full range of services in our community. Thank you for your help in sharing and promoting.

Sample News Stories

The following stories are sample news stories that can be included on websites and/or newsletters. Don't forget to include the Family Compass logo, screenshots of the website, or any other related photos with the stories.

Long News Story

"It is a great resource! A one stop shop, quick hit where the resources a parent needs to navigate the system are simple." (Community Member)

FamilyCompassWR.ca is a new go-to site for finding community-based services and supports for parents, youth and children in Waterloo Region. Launching February 12, the site offers 3 "doors" to site users:

- Search for Services – self-search for local health, social and recreational services for children and youth
- I Have a Concern – a tool to connect you to a local organization that can help address concerns with a child or youth
- Resources for Parents – resources for parents to learn, find support and connect with other parents (links to Parenting Now)

Children and Youth Planning Table Virtual Access Chair, Jaime Jacomen explains "Our goal from day one was to help families and youth more easily navigate and access the services in Waterloo Region." FamilyCompassWR.ca has been in development for the past year, supported by members of the Children and Youth Planning Table, in partnership with the Special Needs Strategy Planning Table and Moving on Mental Health initiative. This easy and interactive website provides a one-stop resource for locating the right service for children, youth and families in Waterloo Region.

Short News Story

"It is a great resource! A one stop shop, quick hit where the resources a parent needs to navigate the system are simple." (Community Member)

FamilyCompassWR.ca launches February 12th! The new go-to website for children, youth and families offers three options to help you find what you're looking for. Search for Services: a self-search database of local services. I Have a Concern: a tool to connect you to a local organization to address concerns about child/youth development. Resources for Parents: a link to Parenting Now to access resources for parents. FamilyCompassWR.ca can be accessed any time, anywhere. Visit today!