

Community Child and Youth Well-being Survey Concepts – Facilitators Guide

Thank you for sharing feedback from the children and youth in your program or group on the Concepts that will be covered in the Community Child and Youth Well-being Survey. If you have any questions, please contact Shannon McIntyre at ShMcIntyre@regionofwaterloo.ca or 519-575-4400 ext. 2144.

Your full name:

Your organization:

We belong

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about your belonging, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are healthy

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about your health, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are learning

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about your learning, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are secure

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about your security, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are free to play

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about your freedom to play, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are participating

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about your participation, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are protected

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about being protected, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are connected to our environment

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about your connection to your environment, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

We are happy and respected

When you read/see/hear/think about the definition of this domain, is there anything from the list of Concepts we are missing?

When you think about being happy and respected, is there anything you don't see captured in the Concepts?

What doesn't make sense?

Concluding thoughts

Please use the below space to include additional comments or questions you may have.

Thank you for sharing feedback from the children and youth in your program or group on the Concepts that will be covered in the Community Child and Youth Well-being Survey. If you have any questions, please contact Shannon McIntyre at ShMcIntyre@regionofwaterloo.ca or 519-575-4400 ext. 2144.